In the Heart of Thermaic Gulf: Stories from the sea side

The Thermaic Gulf, the reason for founding the city of Thessaloniki, has always made it an important commercial, economic and military centre. For centuries, travelers, merchants and ship crews crossed its waters and experienced its beauty from the sea side. But who can imagine today that the bottom of the Thermaic Gulf could be a revelation for the city's history itself? Nikos Kavadias, the famous Greek poet, suggests that "Thessaloniki must only be viewed by boat". Driven by his words, we share stories through a different tour in the sea, we get to know well-hidden secrets and unknown stories of the city that are hidden at the bottom of the Thermaic Gulf and we observe monuments, landmarks and Thessaloniki's magnificent view from the sea side.

Highlights:

- Indicative points of interest: White Tower, Walls, Eptapyrgio, Port, Aristotelous Square, Kalamaria-Karabournaki
- Duration: -3 hours
- * The tour is carried out in Greek, English and Italian.
- ** The group will be accompanied by one (1) MA archaeologist _certified tour guide

Thessaloniki...on your plate

Thessaloniki is full of markets, flavors and aromas! Its culinary treasures made Thessaloniki the first Greek city to be included in UNESCO's Creative Cities of Gastronomy and this did not happen by chance. Since its foundation, the city has been a crossroads of cultures, different customs and tastes. Flavors with roots in Byzantium, the Ottoman period, the Sephardic Jews and other different ethnic groups that through the centuries chose Thessaloniki as their homeland, survive to this day on the same table. Why do Thessalonians eat sesame seed bread rings in the morning and what is the story behind their famous coffee, "trappe"? What's the origin of the beloved "bougatsa" that you should definitely try? Which are the sweets that should not be missed? Through an unforgettable boat ride in the calm waters of Thermaikos gulf, we enjoy the best local flavors and learn the secret stories that these delicious treasures hide. Are you ready for a memorable experience?

II. «La Madre de Israel - The Jewish presence in Thessaloniki»
The Jews, the "people of immigration", already exist in Thessaloniki since the Roman Times but will be established in the city after the Sephardic Jews' arrival in the 15th century. The Jewish neighborhoods changed the city's profile and identity significantly. We walk through these neighborhoods and get a glimpse at their way of living, their habits and customs, their religion and their professions. World War II will be devastating for the Jewish community in Thessaloniki. Their persecution by the Germans, the destruction of the Jewish cemetery and other places associated with the Holocaust, have many stories to narrate. A visit to the Jewish Museum could not be missing from this tour, since it offers us valuable material and important information about the history.

- Indicative points of interest: Aristotelous Square, Synagogue of Monasteries, Stoa Malakopi, Eleftherias Square, Port.
- * The Jewish Museum can be included in the tour upon arrangement, with the only difference that the tour will last ~30 minutes more.
- Duration: -2,5 hours
